White - Burgundy

- Bourgogne Chardonnay, Côte Chalonnaise, Vignerons de Buxy 2012 £26
Aged in stainless steel vats, then oak barrels, with a fine pale golden hue, the nose is very fruity with hints of honeysuckle and hawthorn, the palate has a clean, lively bite with an after taste reminiscent of aniseed.
- Bourgogne Chitry, Domaine Michel Colbois 2012 £29
Right next to Chablis, a true "David" next to his neighbour "Goliath", and as true to the story, this wine packs a wonderful punch, with high acidity and a long finish.
- Petit Chablis, Christophe Camu 2013 £29
This is fresher and fruitier than a classic Chablis. It works well as an aperitif or with food. Bright and golden in colour, it is lively but balanced on the palate with floral aromas and a long fresh finish.
- Chablis, Domaine de la Margotte 2014 £35
2014 was a great year! This Chablis is crystal clear, fresh and zingy on the nose. It has crisp and clean notes of grapefruit and lime and on the palate, citrus, zippy but with a bit of weight and great length.
- Jaffelin St Aubin 1er Cru Sur la Gamay 2011 £49
A wonderfully structured, deep Chardonnay ... A great nutty vanilla with oaky notes, white and yellow citrus fruits and a lasting long finish.
- Puligny Montrachet, Domaine Berthelemot 2012 £59
Barrel-aged, which gives this exiting wine warmth and butteryness but still has hues of lime and mellow soft almonds and white orchard notes.
- Chassagne Montrachet 1er Cru, Domaine Berthelemot 2012/13 £74
I never tell you what to drink with your food but this is my favourite. Now it won't stand up to strong red meats but everything else it will!! It is deep and oaky, buttery with a hint of vanilla spice!

White - Bordeaux & Loire

- Sauvignon Charentais, Le Pontis 2013 £22
Bright and intense; bursting flavours with bold, grassy, citrus notes; very juicy with a tingly finish, which will leave your taste buds wanting more.
- Touraine Sauvignon, Domaine du Rin du Bois 2014 £24
From the heart of the Loire valley where Sauvignon Blanc is perfectly at home, this wine is full, firm and lively with vivid grassy notes.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Chateau Bauduc 2013/14 £25
Gordon Ramsey's house white, but don't let that put you off!!! Honey, lemon colour with a sophisticated nose of fresh zesty fruits with a bit of fat "gras" to it, which makes it a mouth watering food wine
- Pouilly Fumé, Domaine Dominique Pabiot "Les Vieilles Terres" 2014 £34
A fantastic Sauvignon Blanc, which has great mineralistic notes; limes and lemon with a great flinty smoky taste. My favourite from the Loire valley

White - Rhone & Languedoc

- Mas du Canal Blanc £15
A soft, round blend of Chardonnay and Vermentino. Fresh but creamy.
- Chemin des Pins - Sauvignon £17
A light, crisp white to glug down by the glass or bottle!!
- Chemin des Pins - Marsanne/Viognier £19
A bit different to the more familiar Sauvignon and Chardonnay that have dominated people's tastes for decades. Plenty of peach and apricot.
- Château Pesquié, Les Terrasses Blanc 2013 £28
70% Viognier blended with Roussanne and Clairette. The nose is white flowers and lime; the palate bursts with lychee and apricot.
- Condrieu, Francois Villard Terrasses du Palat 2012 £56
A unique Condrieu made from Viognier, aged in new oak. It has an intense nutty golden flavour and a zippy citrus palate.

White - Alsace

- Pinot d'Alsace Metisse, Domaine Bott Geyl 2012 £37
This biodynamic wine is a blend of Pinot Blanc, Pinot Auxerrois, Pinot Gris and Pinot Noir. It has ripe honeyed aromas of citrus and white fruits. The palate is round with good richness but also shows good mineral presence.

White - Austria

- Kies Gruner Veltliner, Kurt Angerer 2014 £32
If you have never tried an Austrian wine, try this. It is packed full with zingy freshness, slightly lemon sherbert, limey and crisp. It has a subtle hint of white pepper on the palate and orchard fruits
- Ametzberg Riesling, Kurt Angerer 2012 £47
Back notes of white orchard fruits with great acidity. Lemon and lime on the palate with a zesty light fresh finish

White - Italy

- Soave, Alpha Zeta, 2013 £23
This is like a big brother to a pinot grigio. A pale lemon colour, with clean, bright aromas of almond blossom. With fresh acidity, the palate is ripe and concentrated, full of apple and pear. The finish is lively and crisp.

White - Marlborough, New Zealand

- Greywacke Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough 2013/14 £39
Intense tropic flavours, smoky honeydew melon, with hints of blackcurrant herbal and zest

'BULLY'S

Red - Burgundy

- Fleurie, Manoir du Carra 2012/13 £34
This is a very sexy Fleurie, juicy with orchard red fruits, violet and cherries on the palate, with a strong finish for such a gamey wine. It has a deep crimson colour and a surprisingly long finish.
- Bourgogne Pinot Noir, Domaine Jean Guiton 2012 £41
A great wine from Burgundy is a light easy drinking Pinot Noir that has fresh, crisp flavours and subtle tannins
- Mercurey Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Ninot 2013 £45
Mercurey is the most important appellation in the Côte Chalonnaise ; the warm, dry microclimate results in a full-bodied Pinot Noir. This particular expression is of tart red fruits, tilled earth and black tea.
- Beaune 1er Cru, Domaine Jean Guiton 2011 £49
Raspberry and redcurrant on the nose, enough tannings which give it great strength but is lively and juicy
- Nuits St Georges, Domaine Jaffelin 2010 £59
A muscular and well defined Pinot Noir. Well balanced with blackberries, subtle pine notes and spicy cherries

Red - Bordeaux

- Bordeaux Rouge, Château Goumin 2011 £24
50% Merlot and 50% Cabernet Sauvignon. This wine is a deep ruby red Bordeaux, silky tannins with lush brambly fruits. Dried raisins which leads to a spicy and intense fruity drink
- Côtes de Francs, Château de Francs 2010 £33
This wine, a blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon presents ripe fruit aromas. It has great complexity and is round and full with a silky texture and long length.
- Médoc, Château Lacombe Noaillac 2009 £35
A Bordeaux blend of Merlot and Cabernet, which is deep and earthy. This wine has lots of dark bramble fruits; plummy, smokey and spicy on the palate with a wonderful dried cherry-like nose.
- Margaux, Château Dauzac 5ième Grand Cru Classé 2008 £66
A great crowd pleasure. It's deep and concentrated with wonderful fresh blackcurrant flavours. Silky and strong, ripe tannings but dense and leathery

'BULLY'S

Red - Rhone

- Cotes du Rhone Villages, Boutinot 'Les Coteaux' 2011 £26
This wine is a luscious, ripe red from the Southern Rhone. It has subtle oak, sweet and warm cinnamon notes with dense layers of red brambly fruit
- Côtes du Rhone Villages Séguret, Boutinot "Les Schisteux" 2012 £37
The nose is plush and opulent, layered with exotic spice, cracked black pepper and streaked with crushed vanilla. Yet there is a floral, almost feminine side to it. The palate is instantly appealing, polished and smooth on entry but steeped in depth and texture as the flavours swirl around, lengthen and delight.
- Saint-Joseph "Les Reines", Domaine Gilles Flacher 2011 £44
Dark plum colour; the nose gives mulled fruits, a slightly sweet aroma, loganberry, mulberry. The palate bears mature fruit with a sweet red jam middle. The tannins are supple on the finish, which is round and orderly.
- Châteauneuf du Pape, Domaine de la Graveirette "Les Mémentes" 2012 £49
Dense, dark cherry and raspberry on the nose with a waft of scrubland air. The palate is very well structured with balanced tannins and a pleasant freshness.
- Châteauneuf du Pape, Château Mont Redon 2007 £59
Ruby red, plummy with figs. Herbal notes of rosemary and thyme with strong leather notes and juicy cassis and spice

Red - Languedoc

- Domaine Montplo £15
Red fruit on the palate, slightly spicy; smooth and round.
- Chemin des Pins - Merlot £17
Plump and luscious, a cracking Merlot, with or without food.
- Chemins des Pins - Malbec £19
Not to be mistaken from the sweet, big Malbecs from the New World, this is where it started. Plummy, fruity, good tannins, slightly sweet fruits.
- "CS" Cabernet Syrah 2013 £21
A great plump red! The Cabernet Sauvignon gives it black berry aromas and the Syrah gives a juicy fruity peppery note. A real easy drinker!
- Coteaux de Peyriac Carignan, Château de Bagnoles 2014 £22
"Keep calm and Carignan"!
- Minervoise "Les Combes", Château de Bagnoles 2013 £24
This powerful, supple and aromatic wine is a good match for rich, sweet, red meat or strong blue cheeses.
- Saint Chinian Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Belles Courbes 2012 £27
Notes of flint, bay and dried fruit on the nose. A structured palate, round and full with light black pepper and blackberry.

'BULLY'S

Red - Italy

- Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore, Alpha Zeta 2012 £29
A "baby Amarone", made with the skins of the dried grapes that go into Italy's famous Amarone wines - a brilliantly balanced red that goes so well with food.
- Barbera d'Alba, Marchesi di Barolo 2012 £36
This wine from Italy is ruby red in colour with purple hues and has a fresh scent with fruity notes of blackberries, red fruit jam and spicy hints of vanilla and toasted hazelnuts
- Chianti "Le Cicale", Bibi Graetz 2012 £39
This Sangiovese is a great find, juicy and fruity, cherries and violets, slight hint of mint and undertone of peat flinty with pencil lead
- Amarone, Alpha Zeta 2011 £45
Deep aromas of rich fruit cake, dried cherries and sealed plum. Smoky and vanilla spice from oak ageing
- Barbaresco, Produttori del Barbaresco 2008/09 £52
This deep fruity wine has dark fruits, which are wonderfully balanced, intense and elegant with dark bitter chocolate notes and black cherries. Long lasting and silky.
- Barolo "Sarmassa", Marchesi di Barolo 2008/09 £69
A medium weight red with redcurrants violets and strawberries. Nuttyness of coconut and cut woddy hay develops into a silky end

Red - Spain

- Gran Fabrica, Gran Reserva, Cariñena 2006 £23
An inspired blend of Tempranillo, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon. Smooth and concentrated with ripe blackberry fruit and a hint of vanilla.

Red - Douro Valley, Portugal

- Douro, Esporão "Assobio" 2011 £27
This wine from the Douro Valley, Portugal, is a medium-bodied red with aromas of spice, dark cherry and berry. It is nicely balanced and very easy to drink. The finish is dry and fine-grained tannins.

Red - Barossa Valley, Australia

- John Duval Entity Shiraz 2010 £49
An elegant old vine Shiraz, sexy black fruits, chocolate hues spicy and energetic. Deep old oak and tobacco aromas
